13th HDO International Conference

MAINTENANCE 2007

Announcement and first call for papers

Šibenik, Croatia
15 - 17 May, 2007

DEAR COLLEAGUES,

You are invited to attend the 13th International Conference “Maintenance 2007” which will be organized by HDO - Croatian Maintenance Society in Šibenik, Croatia, on 15 – 17 May, 2007 at hotel “Ivan” (Hotels Solaris).

By a variety of interesting topics covering almost the whole maintenance field, we wish to gather experts, scientists, equipment manufacturers and repair technicians in order to learn something new and to ensure high equipment availability by less effort and through reduced costs. This conference should contribute both to the increased reliability of the equipment manufactured and to higher quality of services rendered. We also wish that intensive communication between maintenance experts and scientists as well as the exhibition and presentations by the equipment manufacturers contribute to the new and useful topics in the maintenance research field.

We invite all the authors interested in presenting their working experience and/or results of their scientific research in the maintenance field to send us a paper (the Application form is to be found enclosed).

We also invite all those interested in the exhibition of products and services related to maintenance, which is going to be organized simultaneously with the conference, to contact us so that we could agree upon all details as well as the modes and possibilities of other types of co-operation and assistance in organizing this traditional annual gathering of maintenance experts.

Now follow the main topics, detailed information about the conference organization and possibilities of co-operation as well as key data and deadlines.
